

International Master Coach Julio Olalla Will Speak at EPA on July 12

The Federal Consulting Group's coaching community and guests are invited to hear Julio Olalla on July 12, 2007 from 9 a.m. – noon at the Environmental Protection Agency, East Building, 1201 Constitution Ave., NW.

Julio's topic is "Leading in a Time of Global Crisis." He will lead a provocative conversation on the new leadership skills required to achieve sustainability in the face of increasing complexity. The event is part of EPA's Transformational Leadership Conversations speaker series.

According to Julio, the leader is one who:

- Is both strategic and courageous
- Integrates, not separates
- Values relationships, not just things
- Sees the whole and not just the parts
- Has developed greater personal awareness and can see the connectedness in everything.

To register, please email Michael O'Reilly at oreilly.michael@epa.gov

More about Julio Olalla

Julio Olalla is founder and president of the Newfield Network, an international education and consulting company. For over a decade Julio and his team of master coaches and facilitators have worked with people in the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom, Spain, Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Mexico, Venezuela and Australia. This team has repeatedly noted the stress of modern life worldwide, and that most people are looking for guidance in creating effective action and meaning in everyday life.

He has trained over 50,000 individuals worldwide and worked with more than 300 organizations to develop increased integration, productivity, strength and well-being of individuals, teams and leaders. Julio is also a sought-after keynote speaker, having addressed large audiences in London, Argentina, Canada, Switzerland, and the U.S. on the topics of leadership, organizational learning, education, and coaching.

Originally trained as a lawyer in Chile, Julio currently lives with his family in Boulder, Colorado. His clients have included NASA, CIA, Citibank, and AARP, to name a few. MORE <http://www.newfieldnetwork.com/Public/WhyNewfield/JulioOlalla/index.cfm>

###